“ To My Dear Mother, I miss every day. Losing you was such a loss! What a beautiful gift God gave to you and us, with your heavenly voice and kind ways. I was silent at your memorial service because I couldn't find the words to tell you, just how much you meant to me, in front of, mostly strangers. I am part of you and your soul, which will live forever in the light of God's love. I wrote this poem for you when I was 7 years old, of which you loved so much. I Dedicate this in honor to you, from your Daughter, Cassandra. "YOU TOO MY MOTHER READ MY RHYMES FOR LOVE OF FUN FORGOTTEN TIMES AND YOU MAY CHANCE TO HEAR ONCE MORE THE LITTLE FEET ALONG THE FLOOR." I love you more than words can say, and am with you always!
