

John Everman

October 14, 1931 - March 3, 2019

John Everman, age 87, of Columbus OH, passed away surrounded by family on March 3rd, 2019. John was a member of the US Navy during the Korean War. John was born in Portsmouth, OH and moved to Columbus in the early 70's to begin his 30 year career with HER Realtors/Real Living where he served as manager and Vice President. He is preceded in death by the love of his life of 67 years, Rometta J Everman; his parents John and Ollie Everman; 7 sisters; and 2 brothers. He is survived by sons, Bill (Dianna) Everman and David (Cynthia) Everman; daughter, Lisa (Shawn) Moorehead; granddaughters, Lorie (Kevin Darnell), Jessica (Nick) Will, Lindsey (Keegan) Ross, Maggie Moorehead (fiancé Casey Qualls), Kelly Moorhead (fiancé Gunnar Bloecher); great granddaughters Everleigh and Riley. The family deeply appreciates the love and care he received from the entire staff and residents of Willow Brook Christian Home, Hospice of Central Ohio, and all his special friends and family that visited him regularly while at Willow Brook. He was an avid Buckeye and sports fan. His hobbies included fishing as well as coaching little league football and baseball. He had a gift of making everyone feel like family and was loved by all. Visitation will be held at RUTHERFORD AT POWELL, 450 W. Olentangy St., Powell OH 43065, Wednesday March 6th from 10 AM -12 PM with service at 12 PM with John's Nephew Rev. David McCoy presiding. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens. Please send condolences to www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com

“ John Everman was to HER Realtors what Arnold Palmer was to golf. Loved and respected by all. His sight was medically impaired but his memory was second to none. He listened, gave solid advice and shared a genuine interest in all agents.

John never forgot where he came from and treated everyone like family.
