John Elwood Jones, Jr. was born on July 20, 1940 in Pasadena, CA. In high school, he was the Student Body President, Homecoming King, and a cheerleader. His goal in life was to be a ministry of the Gospel, although God had other plans. He ended up in the sales industry working for Johnson & Johnson, Max Factor, and Elizabeth Arden before retiring. But it wasn't long before he was working full time as the Executive Administrator at his church, Words of Life, in Miami, FL. He leaves behind the love of his life, his wife Jackie, and a son Greg (Lori) and daughter Kim. Also 6 grandchildren: Ryan (Rebecca), Brett (Chloe), Alec, Kylie (Ryan), Jacob and Sydney. And 5 great-grandchildren: McKenna, Anderson, Sawyer, Aubrey and Parker. As well as 3 surviving sisters: Judy (John), Becky (Mike), and Peggy (Joe).

2 Timothy 4:7-8: I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved his appearing.
