“ Essentially, my entire high school experience was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Macioci's son, Matt. For what must have literally been hundreds of nights, I would stay at the Macioci's and play video games with Matt until 3 or 4 AM in the morning. During that time, I learned how incredibly kind and patient not only John, but every member of the Macioci family was. I am quite certain Matt and I would frequently behave in a way that would test Mr. and Mrs. Macioci's patience. I never saw either of them grow angry, however. They were always smiling and seemed to be happy to see me. The kindness and warmth Mr. and Mrs. Macioci had and shared with not only me, but everyone I saw them interact with was inherited by Matt, one of my best friends. He is one of the kindest and caring people I have ever known. Whether it is working with children with special needs, or calling a friend just to see how he is doing, Matt is genuinely concerned about the well-being and happiness of others. From the thousands of interactions I had with Mr. and Mrs. Macioci, I am convinced Matt learned those qualities from watching his parents. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Macioci, for your patience and kindness, and for helping create a remarkable person and friend in Matt.

“ Uncle Johnny always treated you like you were the most important person in the room. With a keen insight of world politics, the stock market and a contagious laugh, he will be missed. But the pictures and memories will be with us forever. Aunt Dorothy, Amy and Matt, we were truly blessed to have John in our lives. Glad I got to see everyone when I was in Columbus last year.

“ Dear Matt and Family,
I met Mr. Macioci one time and I was glad I had the opportunity to do that. Matt you have been a dedicated son and a good person that tries hard to make the best of any situation. This will be a difficult time but I know you will continue to strive to be a better person and you will be successful. God bless and our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time!

“ *I will always remember Uncle John Macioci as a "gentle" man displaying love and affection to all who knew him. He epitomized smiling with a "twinkle in his eyes." Truly a hero of the Greatest Generation, he patriotically loved his country serving with honor and dignity. Above all else he loved and cherished his family. Our sympathy and love to Aunt Dorothy, and cousins Amy and Matt. Fondly with affectionate condolences,
Gayle and Ron Gadus
