“ I was saddened to hear of Rocky's passing. Both he and Irene became friends when my daughter Maren met Stefanie in school. The girls quickly became friends and my husband Brian and I always liked associating with the Lawrence family. They were good people. I know Rocky will be missed by all who knew him. Deepest condolences. Jill

“ Rocky was a lifelong friend who will be greatly missed. One of my favorite memories is from our teenage years when Rocky, his brother Matt, my brother Mike, and I would pile into his Uncle Charlie’s old Dodge sidestep and head into town on Friday nights. Rocky was the first of us to get his license, so he drove. We’d go to the Strand for a movie and then make our way to Pizza Villa where we stuffed ourselves until we could barely walk. Those were simple times, but we felt like we were on top of the world—or at least Delaware County. I’ll always be grateful for those memories and our friendship. Rest in peace, Rocky.

“ Dear Rocky. You loved your children from the deepest depths of your huge heart. Weather check phone calls. Producing more than enough garden goodies to share with them. Not to forget passing on your amazing work ethics. And so so much more. On days when they are sad and missing you desperately. Let them be comforted and reminded of your dedicated acts of a champion father. You gave your all. Most never know this kind of unconditional love. Jobe well done. Paula “ Rocky and his wife Irene helped me bring up my daughter Bridget A Hildreth from the time she was eight weeks until she was almost 4 years old.

Their children became like older siblings. I can never repay this family for their love and kindness.

God speed my Rocky.

With much love,

Marianna
