“ Our deepest sympathy to Ellen and family in the sudden death of cousin, John, whom was dearly loved by his relatives in the Ragersville/Sugarcreek valley and surrounding area. He was truly a man of God and made the world a better place to live. He was an icon of the Ladrach family and made the Ladrach Reunion a success. We love you! Don & Arline Smith family

“ Dearest Ellen and Mary, and family, I am so sorry to hear of John's passing. So many fond memories to relate. Such an excellent man. Just the other day I was remembering what fun it was when John and Ellen met up with Jill (my mom) and me in Paris in 2000. No words can really express it. Sincerely, your continuing friend, Amy Collins

“ Dear Ellen and Family, My heart goes out to you on the loss of your husband - John - and father. Ellen, I have not seen you in recent years, but still recall chatting with you from time to time in our Kilbourne Village neighborhood. You were one of the first people I met on moving there. Our family sends its deepest sympathy. Annie Marie Garraway and Family
