“ My name is Pam Snyder Taylor. My family lived next door to the Cummons family back in the 50s when I was a little girl. I have a picture of Gary and I when he was home for a weekend from the navy. He had his navy uniform on and I had a cowgirl outfit on (I was probably about 4 in the picture). My mother wanted us to have a picture together- I thought Gary was the most handsome man I had ever seen in his uniform. He held my hand in the picture and I thought that was so cool. He was always so sweet to me and my brother Doug who was 2 years older than I. My parents always took us to Ohio State basketball games and I remember watching Gary filming the games. Janie and I reconnected a few years ago and actually had lunch together with my father who was 90 at that time. My dad also passed away about 6 weeks ago. Janie emailed me about Gary's passing today. I am so very sorry for your loss. My memory of Gary was that he was a very sweet man. Blessings to your family.
