

Jose Sanchez Ludena

May 27, 1946 - March 5, 2021

Jose Sanchez Ludena age 74, of Columbus OH. Passed away peacefully Friday evening March 5, 2021, at Kobacker House, with his wife and eldest daughter by his side.

Jose was originally from Peru and immigrated to the U.S. 22 years ago. During this time, he was obtained U.S. Citizenship, paving the way for his family members who chose to follow his example. Jose faced many challenges as the English language did not come easily to him. In spite of this, he dedicated his life to providing for his wife and children. His dedication to family shone though as he sent his hard income to his homeland to aid his sons enabling them to pursue educational goals and to put food on the table.

He was a devout member of the Catholic faith, regularly attending Mass at St. Joan of Arc in Powell. He continually set an example for his family, providing life lessons and wisdom ensuring his children and grandchildren have the opportunity to be the best versions of themselves.

Jose was survived by his wife Lucia, his daughters: Lucy and Rocio and his sons: Jose, Helbert, Arturo, Carlos, and 16 grandchildren.

-Jose's Garden-

In the garden his hands did toil

As his mind drifted to the jungles of Peru

The soil

The seed

The water

Giving vital growth in the form of love

The ground he tilled

The seeds he sowed

Coffee

Pineapple

And avocado

Now replaced by

Tomato

Herbs

And flowers

The vast acreage in the shadow of the Andes in Peru

Replaced by a community garden in Ohio

His hands toiled no less

His love not in the least diminished

A gardener in life

Now a gardener in heaven

May his fruits be ever sweet

His herbs be ever fragrant

His flowers ever blooming

And his memory sowed in everlasting life
