“ My sincere sympathies to the family of Joe Curren...and to Pat. I was in part responsible for recruiting Patty to teacher at Ripley when I was a Principal in the high school. We received a bonus when we hired Patty: We got Joe and Pat! Joe and Pat visited the school often, enriched Patty's classroom for kids, assisted us with Prom (Patty was the greatest prom advisor in the universe!), and they brought me coffee! Joe and Pat's contributions to our little, rural as caring parents of one of our teachers is something I never experienced...and likely will never experience again. My last contact with Joe and Pat was around 2006 when we shared a burger and beer at the Rusty Bucket. That was one of many treasured moments. Joe will be missed by the many folks whose life he enriched with his attitude.
