“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Joe over the last several years when I met him at H&R Block. He was always so warm and friendly even though he carried the burden of ill health. He always took the time to converse and attend to every detail on my return. I admired his strength and always enjoyed hearing about his next golf trip. He will be missed. My deepest sympathy goes out to Helen and Jan and his entire family and many friends.

“ My heart is aching at the loss of our dear sweet Joe. We had 18 wonderful years of marriage, and many, many fond memories. Those we truly have loved, never leave us. Joe, you will live on forever in my heart.

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
Gently closed those loving years
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

“ The Day My Life Changed . . .

Was the day I lost my dearest friend Joe.

I met my best friend on a golf course in 1978 and we remained best friends for 46 years. Many of those years were spent in Wisconsin until his transfer to Columbus, Ohio. We never lost touch after his move; taking vacations together and visiting each other where ever we were. Even though Joe's health was failing, he always managed to make an effort (sick or not) to make his trip

Eleven years ago I met another dear friend, Kathryn who quickly became a friend to Joe. The three of us spent a lot of time traveling together and many of those trips ended up golfing. Kathryn referred to Joe many times as her other "boyfriend" and he loved to laugh every time she called him that. Because I was unable to accompany Joe to Alaska, Kathryn completed State # 46 on Joe's golf bucket list.

The most memorable trip we went on was to complete his final goal of playing golf in every State. His "final four" (as I called it) were the States of Montana, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho. I knew how difficult it was for him, but Joe never complained and was always up for whatever was on the agenda.

I cannot say in any amount of words, the sorrow I feel and the emptiness in my heart. My life has forever changed without Joe in it. Golf good in Heaven my friend! We love you Joe. ?

“ I enjoyed working with Joe at Ross. He was very competent though not flashy, not trying to draw attention to himself. Yet he was friendly and very thoughtful. If you asked him a question he responded in a sincere way. I always respected Joe.

“ Joe was a honest and true friend. He will be missed by his many associates and golfing friends at Ross Labs. The "Chugden Invitational" won't be the same without him. Our thoughts and prayers will be with Joe's family during this difficult time.

“ Rest in Peace Joe--your passing has left a deep emptiness in our hearts. Having known you for almost 50 years, attending each others weddings and those of the other "Rat Pack" friends, going on vacations together, golf outings with Charlie and the Hibernian crew, and our "Big Chill" weekend just to name a few, you were always the one who made me laugh the hardest. Your laugh is contagious. Love you Joe. Sending love and condolences to Mrs Dargo and Janeese.
