“ My condolence to Joe's family. I first met Joe in 1961. I worked with him at the next desk at DCSC. Joe had a good sense of humor and a very even temperament. He had a lot of military knowledge and I had very little. I was fresh from civilian life. We had a boss, who was a Lt. Colonel. The firstday I was on the job I asked Joe if I should call him Colonel. Joe started laughing real hard and told me to not call him Lieutenant. I phoned Joe a few years ago and we both got another laugh from that. God rest his soul.
