“ It was an honor and a privilege to have known Jere and his wife Madeleine. I enjoyed 2 fun Beer Can Chicken dinners at their home and enjoyed both enormously. He was a gracious welcoming host and a true gentleman. My heart goes out to Madeleine. Our town lost a hero, she lost her life partner. We should all gather around her and show her the love that Jere showed for our town and people.

“ Joe was a close buddy of my Dad (Larry Stacik) during and after WW11. They were in the 400th Armored Field Artillery Batttalion together. I remember both Joe and Betty. My Dad has passed a few years ago. Perhaps they are in Heaven sharing war stories. My sincere sympathy to his family and all who love him.
