“ Joy was a joy! We met in high school and reconnected 50 years later. We met for breakfast with other classmates and kept in touch by phone or occasional visits. I always felt uplifted when we got together! She was such a positive person! She'll live in our hearts and memories!

“ I always thought Joy was well named but another apt name would have been Fine. No matter what huge medical procedure she was undergoing, when asked how she was, she always answered." Fine." There was only one time very recently when I did not ask so she did not have to answer..

Three of us , all class mates at St. Mary of the Springs Academy headed up the NAMI FC fund raiser walk for many years. I am sure it will go on without her but for me, it will never be the same. For that matter, nothing will ever be the same with her.

*May she finally Rest in Peace,

“ Joy and I worked together at Directions for Youth. We were good friends. We visited her and Art in Naples. Joy had a couple of my oil paintings, one with her and my wife walking along the beach. She was up beat and a real JOY to be around. She will be missed.

“ Joy and I went to grade school and high school together. I remember the May crowning at St. Mary Magdalene's church when we were in 2nd grade. Sue Haney was chosen to crown Mary, but Joy was next in line and I was below her. We joked about how we wished we could have been the one to crown the Blessed Virgin. Also in grade school when we were in 8th grade, we went to visit Sr. Norma, our 8th grade teacher, and told her we wanted to enter the convent after 8th grade. Sr. Norma very wisely advised us to wait until after high school. We laughed about that more than once during the years. Just think - none of you kids would have been had Sr. Norma agreed! I also remember after our graduation from high school Joy and I hosted a party at her house. She was with Art even then! She was always so positive about life and never complained. Always made light of her illnesses throughout the years. God bless you, Joy, and give you the peace and happiness in Heaven that you so deserve! God bless all of you, her family. She was indeed a blessing to have as a Mom I am sure.
Sincerely and with prayers, Judy Davis (DeShetler, Davis)
