

Joy Leigh "McCormick" Johnston

October 28, 2011

Joy Leigh (McCormick) Johnston. Joyful, Joyful we adore thee.... Joy has joined her parents, Alice Ruth and Lyle McCormick, in God's heavenly host. After 14 years of living with breast cancer, Joy passed away at home on Friday, October 28, 2011, surrounded by family and the love of all her friends. Joy was a loving spouse, an inspirational mother, a wonderful sister and a role model for many. She leaves behind her spouse, Steve, her children: Allison Johnston, Nancy Willis (Jonathan), and Ellen Rodenberger (Ian), Steve's parents, Fran and Marvin Johnston, her three sisters, Janet Uldricks (Don), Jane Andrews, Jo Phelps (Loren), and niece, Kerri Scott (John). Joy loved teaching her kindergarten and second graders at Ridgewood Elementary in Hilliard with the great staff there. Joy's special friends include the Debs, the Birders, the Stephen Ministers at Liberty Presbyterian Church and her Bible study small groups. Special thanks to Dr. Andrew Grainger and his team at Central Ohio Oncology. His wisdom and gentle touch nourished her spirit as he kept her cancer at bay. Her family doctor, Dr. John Winzenread, continued his loving support and care for her and the whole family. A celebration of Joy's life will be held at 4:00pm. MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2011 at LIBERTY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 7080 Olentangy River Road, Delaware, Ohio 43015 (At the corner of Olentangy River Road and Home Road.) A reception will follow at the church. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Cancer Support Community-Central Ohio, 10330 Sawmill Parkway, Suite 600, Powell, Ohio 43065 or to the Endowment Fund at Liberty Presbyterian Church, in Joy's memory. Rutherford Funeral Home at Powell (614)-792-1471 is assisting the family. Send condolences for the family to: www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com.

“ Joy came to my yoga classes at the Cancer Support Community. She was such a positive and kind presence! Despite the incredible challenges she faced, she always asked about me and my family and gave support to the other participants. Joy was beautiful, strong and giving, and I am grateful to have known her. I am sending love and prayers to her close friends and family.

“ Nancy--I am very saddened to learn of your mom's passing. Words are of little comfort right now, but what helps is remembering that she is finally free of suffering and knowing that she will live on in you forever. May God give you strength and bring you peace--prayers to you and your family, Nancy

“ Steve, Ellen and the Johnston family, you are in our thoughts and prayers as you release your beloved Joy for the most incredible journey she has ever taken. She has entrusted you with a heritage and legacy that will continue to be a source of Joy for all of you. My thoughts after meeting Joy were, "I want to be more like her!" She believed and lived the Words of our Lord and Savior, Jesus, with her kindness and love. Her life truly was a blessing for the many people who knew her.

“ I did not have the honor and blessing of meeting Joy in person. I feel like I did know her through her daughter Allison and through facebook. What a beautiful woman she was physically, leaving behind three daughters that will carry her always in their beauty and hearts. I can only imagine the many lives that she touched through teaching and I am sure these lives have already made a huge difference in this world. From a caring handsome husband and three gorgeous daughters, to three beautiful sisters and family, Joy was blessed and I am sure was a blessing to many. May God continue to pour out his perfect peace to all of you and May the life of Joy Johnston continue on through generations to come.

“ What a beautiful picture of a beautiful person. I am truly saddened for your loss, and the loss of so many who will certainly miss Joy. She was always so happy and pleasant no matter what she was going through at the time. Always had an encouraging word for everyone. I am sad I didn't make it over to see her at the house, like I promised. I will not be able to make the service, as I will have to work. My thoughts and prayers will be with all of you on that day, and the days to come. May God give you strength and help you through this difficult time. Joy will be missed by all of the nurses at Columbus Oncology. She will always have a special place in my heart. Sincerely, Ann
