“ *Keith we are so sorry for your loss of your very special wife who meant a lot to us. We are sorry that we cant be there today but glad we saw you guys the week before her passing. Just know that if we can do anything for you just let us know. Now for Kris,Kerry,Kevin and Kim... Your Mom was a very special person and I loved her just like she was my own. She was a WONDERFUL Mom,Wife,Grandma,Greatgrandma, and friend and now she is in a safe place where she will have no pain. Until we meet again Joyce (Mom)I love you.
Kris I love you and wish I could have got a flight up to be with you.*

“ To the four K's (Kevin, Kim, Kerry, & Kris) and their love ones; You have my condolences for your Mother. I met all of you many years ago when my Mother (Bernice Sterling) was going with your Grandfather, Lawrence Bauer. You would call her "Shirley." They would watch over you when parents would go out. Your Mother was fun to be around and never a dull minute. Years later my husband (Richard Welch) worked with Kevin at Premix in Lancaster. Best to all of you and yours.

“ Thoughts and prayers being sent today in memory of Joyce, so sorry for your loss, God Bless you all during this difficult time. "Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy"
