“ Dear Lyn - I must begin by saying that I express by sympathy to you as you grieve for your mother. And I also must say that I hope I'm writing to someone I knew as a child but I very well could be wrong. If so, please forgive me. I grew up in Fairmont WV (I'm 68 years old now) and my parents, Nancy and Hummy Humason, had friends named Condit who had a daughter Lyn. They lived in a house up on the hill off Sunset Drive, I think - may have bought the house from the Lindberg family. In any case, I had to write and see if indeed we knew each other as children. Again, please accept my sympathy. With affection, Jean Humason Henderson (Ben Avon area of Pittsburgh)

I am trying to work it out to join you on Wednesday, but not feeling real hopeful at the moment. However, please know that I will be with you in love and in prayer. All my love.....Debby*

“ My Aunt Juanita - what a classy, sophisticated, and beautiful lady. We will miss her. My Dad, her brother, last visited Juanita late this summer while she was in rehabilitation. She escaped, with some help from her best friends, Melissa and Lynn, to join Dad and me for a great dinner at their favorite Italian restaurant. Juanita had no idea she would see her brother and was quite surprised when we opened the door of her car. We had a great time. Always a good host, she made sure Dad and I was happy with the service and meal. After lunch, we visited Juanita's temporary home, one she was anxious to leave and in fact did several days later. One of the highlights of the visit occurred when Dad and Juanita, by design, were left alone to share stories, old times, and a few laughs. At a distance, we noticed the warm affection each showed one another. Somehow they knew to take full advantage of their time together. My 91 year old Aunt and her 84 year old younger brother were living in the moment, something we all should practice. Time is short and we look forward to the day we can reunite with Juanita, not in a rehab center, but in the place Jesus Christ has prepared for us, a place reserved for those who trust in his saving grace. See you later Aunt Juanita, Steve
