“ Erin and Allison,

I came to the Funeral Home just after 10:00 as you were all leaving and I saw you both but it didn't seem like the appropriate time to say anything. I had not planned to go to your mom's Funeral but I felt led to go so I followed the cars over. I went in and saw you with your sweet children. We were neighbors on Laconia Dr and I played cards in a group with your mom after we moved to the Olentangy area. As I saw both of you I was reminded of when your parents adopted you and how happy they were. I was praying for you during the service as I lost my mother to cancer a few years ago and know how hard it is. I was so pleased to hear that your mom had been close to God during this difficult time.

I am sorry I didn't realize your mom had been sick as we had lost touch but so glad we remained friends on Facebook so I could see your notice. I will be praying for you and your children in the months ahead and pray you will feel God's presence as you grieve your sweet Mom.

“ We grew up together, I had just sent her a picture of us in her last birthday card. I am so sorry for the entire family. I will miss our corresponding, we have kept in touch throughout the years, not often but often enough to feel as though we were still kids. So many memories - birthdays, sleepovers, neighborhood baseball, tea parties in our garage in the summer, school together, so much more. I cherish those memories and the fact that we did keep in touch. Blessings and prayers for all. Our youngest daughter was born on April 8th - will never forget Judy on that day!

“ *To all of Judy's family,
What a treasure she was. Just the funniest cousin who always made us laugh. It is a shame that time and distance kept us from seeing her more often. When we were with her, we knew we were in for lots of laughs and funny observations about life. Let's all have a good laugh today and know that that is just what Judy would have wanted!*
