I met June at a book clubs group with Women Today. We became friends. I really got to know June on our drives to St. Patrick's. We talked non stop to and from church. June was a very nice lady. My thoughts are with her entire family.

I met June at the Livingston County Newcomers many years ago. We became friends and had many adventures together. She was an unique lady with such great wisdom and strong beliefs. She adored all of her family and cherished her friends too. I was lucky to travel up north a few times to the Chalet and Bert Lake with our mutual friend, Chris. She will be missed but certainly not forgotten. God bless her and her wonderful family. ❤️

June was a dear friend to me. We both moved here from Michigan and loved going back to the lakes in the summer. We were in several bridge groups together and in Women Today. We will miss her, my sympathy to all her family. Jane Lamp

Dear Mike and Family

I met your mom in 2010. We played bridge in three different groups, shared a membership in a book club, and lunched often in the Lunch Bunch group. She invited me for a Michigan lake weekend during October to enjoy "the color" and the various sites and dining spots. We discovered we shared a fondness for single malt scotch. We also had a number of phone chats. She was a lively conversationalist and created the scene and drew the pictures with prose. She should have been a novelist.

*With condolences to you and your family.
