

Karen M. Sullivan

February 22, 1954 - January 24, 2022

Karen M. Sullivan, died January 24, 2022 in Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus, Ohio after a battle with brain cancer. Karen was born in Newark, Ohio in 1954. Survived by her spouse, Tim, her son Brian, daughter-in-law Rebecca, grandson Kaiden, her life long best friend Cheryl Wood Eckhardt, as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws. She is preceded in death by her parents, Dean and Mary Wise. Karen was loving, kind, loyal and supportive of all who made her acquaintance. Many describe her as the strongest person they knew.

She will be honored with a celebration of life ceremony later this year, hopefully post-Covid. If you wish, you may honor her memory with a donation to her beloved Parkinson's Disease exercise support group: PD Next Steps 4140 Tuller Road Suite 110 Dublin, Ohio 43017. “ Karen and I became special friends exercising several days a week at PD NextSteps, the organization she loved so much. We enjoyed lunches together and ice cream treats on hot afternoons. She was a gentle woman with courage and faith. I am so honored to have known her and to be her friend. She live on in those she touched - our hearts, our minds.
