

Katherine Emilee Halleman

July 22, 1938 - September 30, 2018

Katherine Emilee Halleman of Naples, Florida and recently of Powell, Ohio passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, September 30, 2018. Katherine is survived by her husband of 62 years, Fred Halleman, and her two children – twins Sherry Halleman Morsches (Gary) and Terry Lee Halleman. She is also survived by her five grandchildren: Lauren McCarthy, Caroline Farno, Patrick Morsches, Jack Halleman and Michael Morsches. In addition, she was a great-grandmother to Johnny and Libby McCarthy and Camden Morsches.

Katherine or “Kay” as she liked to be called was an excellent cook and outstanding baker. She took great pleasure in doing for others. She was truly a “Southern” lady with charm, grace and excellent fashion sense. She was a world-class shopper.

Kay was the daughter of the late Clara and Ben Brandhorst of Owensville, Missouri and was the youngest of seven children.

She enjoyed traveling with her husband Fred as his job took them to many interesting international countries and wonderful places. They lived in Milan, Italy for two years where she enjoyed learning Italian. But by far, her greatest joy in life was being with her children and their families – and they all very much loved their “Nana”. We will love her always and keep her in our hearts forever.

Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:30 am Monday, October 8, 2018 in the Chapel at Resurrection Cemetery, 9571 High Street, Lewis Center, Ohio 43035.
