

Kathleen Hankle

August 15, 2014

Cathy Hankle, age 65, died the evening of Friday, August 15, 2014 in the company of her husband, Tom, and her daughter, Wendy. Tom and Cathy had just celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on August 3; Cathy had celebrated her 65th birthday two weeks earlier on July 14. She will be missed more than words could ever say. There was nothing in the world Cathy loved more than her family, and countless memories exist of holiday gatherings, cookouts, pool parties, and togetherness. She was a diehard fan of the Cincinnati Bengals, and played a fierce game of Euchre. Her laughter was contagious and her spirit generous and compassionate. She was one of five children born to Fred and Audrey Ratliff. She graduated from Central High School in 1968, and lived on the Westside her entire life. Cathy is survived by husband Thomas M. Hankle of Columbus; daughter Wendy M. Hankle of Ithaca, N.Y.; brother Fr. Paul C. Theophilus of Clemons, N.C.; uncle Albert White of Columbus; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends. A celebration of her life will be held at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 19, 2014 at First United Brethren Church, 496 S. Wheatland Ave., Columbus, OH 43204. For those moved to offer gifts in remembrance, in lieu of flowers, please make a donation in her name to a charity of your choice.
