“ Kathy was truly "one of a kind" -- and so very special. I will miss her wry sense of humor, and her very direct way of speaking. She has touched so many lives in her short time with us. My thoughts and prayers are will all of you -- and know she is watching over you, in peace.

“ Dear Sharp Family, I just wanted to say that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Kathy was such a wonderful person. I sat in my chair on the beach today and talked to her---telling her how much I will miss her stories at cards and her calling a nello when I had such a better hand. How lucky am to have had her friendship. Take good care of each other...she loved you all so very meuch.

“ I am so sad to hear that Kathy passed away. I have always considered her one of my closest friends, even though we would sometimes go for months without taking the opportunity to talk. I am presently in Ireland, a heritage that Kathleen O'Connell loved. I think of her everyday. She was the kind of friend to whom you could turn with any sorrow, and her giving heart and hilarious sense of humor could help to fix any problems. She was one of the greatest storytellers of our time. Most importantly, she was the mother figure that many children never had in their own parents. She had a special bond with children that needed extra help in learning proper behavior or acquiring academic skills. I kept trying to get her to be a parapro for students with special needs, but she said that she had more contact with children in the office of the school and that was where she was needed. I will truly miss Kathy. I will pray for her and for those she left behind.
