“ When I met Katrina, it was under unusual circumstances. She proved how loyal she would be to me and I accepted her friendship. I realize that to not make me worry, she kept some things from me. And I sit here, at 4:14 am wishing I could have you back Katrina. You were a real friend. I don't think I'll ever find another you. Ever. I wish we could rewind to our college days. Wish I kept you in Baltimore with me and the kids like we said. I wish a lot. You were beautiful Katrina. You matched me in so many ways. I appreciate your guidance and love baby girl. Always. Love, Sara

“ To the family of Katrina,I can only offer my deepest sympathy for your loss. I know that no words can help during this tragic and very heartfelt loss.All I can say is that she always brought a smile to my face and a warmth to my heart! The world is now a darker place because a light was taken from us. Our great loss is now heavens gain. I take comfort in knowing that she is now at gods side watching over us. She will be greatly missed by me and anyone that had the good fortune to meet her and encounter a truly wonderful and loving person! I shed these tears for for you Katrina ,your family ,and great many friends, and myself knowing I won't see your beautiful smile again.However your memory will live on and I will do my best to be a good person so I can see you again in heaven.
