“ I have worked with Keith from time to time at work, but it wasn't until I switched to second shift that we really talked. I would enjoy my 6:00 pm dinner break in Keith's company, where we would talk and joke and laugh. After Keith switched back to first shift, we would occasionally catch each other on the shift change, which was always good for a quick laugh. I was very surprised to hear what happened, and will miss Keith's presence. I did not find out when the memorial service was in time to make arrangements, but send my condolences. I will always remember Keith's smile and am glad that I had a chance to know him.

“ Keith befriended me entirely without provocation; which, in a work environment is rare. I've rarely had a friend with whom I felt such an instant connection. He made my days bearable due to his innate willingness to discuss and/or laugh about anything/everything, at any time; and for that, I will forever be in his debt. My life has been enriched in ways absolutely indescribable, just by knowing Keith. Please accept my deepest condolences and my hopes that your time of healing has begun.
