“ Kenny, I hope you are there riding in the afterlife on a perfect race track with the most brilliant weather along with another fallen rider I said goodbye to a year and a half ago. You will be sadly missed by all of us at the Forumz. My condolences to the family and all those you left behind. I hope everyone, like you, will find peace knowing you died doing something you loved. Godspeed, Drooder

“ To the family of Kenny, We have never meet your son or your family but learning of your tragic loss has touched our very souls. On October 11th,2008 we lost our son Brandon to a motorcycle accident. I know that if they had not meet here this side of Heaven they meet on the other side. Sharing the love of their motorcycles and riding. Kenny's picture gives a face to young spirited young man. We pray the peace of God that surpasses all understanding surround you and your family this day and the days to come until you see your son again. Al and Kim Cole Reynoldsburg

“ I'm sorry I can't make it down there to see Kenny off. He was a great guy with a sarcastic sense of humor that could always make me laugh. He was a good friend through the years and I always enjoyed 'talking cars' with him. He will certainly be missed. You guys have my thoughts and prayers, and please accept my condolences.

“ Kenny, most of us are still in awe over our loss. Too bad our paths didn't cross when I was in Columbus a few weeks ago. Your company and humor will truly be missed. The Z will never be quite the same without you. You were a good friend, and you will be missed by many. Rest in Peace Kenny. -Nahim Kaim "njk27"

“ I still cant believe you are gone Kenny. I was looking forward to meeting back up with you at Indy to race go karts this year. Unfortunately I will have to be content with the great times we had last year. I hope you are in a better place brother, passing under caution and raising hell where ever you are. Ride on brother, we all miss you.

“ Kenny, It is through this little portion of the web called R6-forumZ that we met. A fellow brethren of the riding community. Him and among others share this common interest in motorcycles and enjoying it as a past time. Albeit enjoying a nice ride in the canyons, hanging out with friends, meeting new fellow riders or just watching the pros race or ripping it up at the track. He will be missed greatly. Family and friends, and even fellow riders that never met him. Kenny, you will be missed. Mike, California (529, R6-forumZ)

“ Kenny (or as Rick sometimes called you "K Double"), We will miss you very much and you will always be in our thoughts and hearts forever. You were a great friend to have. I know Rick and Roddy will miss you on your Tuesday nights hanging out. I'm so happy you guys had made a pact in high school to get together every Tuesday night and hang out. I hope you knew how much you meant to all of us and it won't be the same without you neither. Our hearts and condolences go out to your mom, dad, and brother as well as everyone else who is going to miss you deeply. RIP Kenny. We miss you. :(Love Ya, Rick and Nicole

“ I am friend of Allen & Tara Whitaker and met Kenny and Jesse for the first time after hearing so much about them for a Superbowl/Birthday party for Allen recently. Kenny was quiet, reserved and smiled a lot, not afraid to talk to someone. I am so saddened to learn of his passing, but know that God needed him. I am praying for the family. God Bless.

“ Kenny I had the pleasure of knowing you when you would come over with Ricky to visit Stevie & Dallas. It was such a pleasure to have met you and watch you grow from a boy to a gentle, kind, & loving young man. You will be missed by my grandson (Ricky) terribly. Shirley & Ben & Jesse are in my prayers, your with Stevie now and her grandpa Danny your in good company and I am sure you will be the light of the party. Love Mary “ Rest in peace my friend. Kenny was a good friend as well as a co-worker of mine. He recently helped me move across the US - I'm glad you got the chance to see the West, like you've always wanted to. I will miss our daily chats, late nights at Jimmy V's, just your attitude on life - simple, as it should be. Kenny truly lived his favorite quote - "The key to living an immortal life is first living a life worth remembering". Kenny IS...simply putting it...ONE of a kind. Lived life in the moment and had a heart of gold. I will never forget your friendship. My prayers go out to his family and friends. I will truly miss you, my friend. I'll be home soon to say goodbye.

“ Kenny, you will be missed. It's times like these that remind us that we should be ever-vigilant of the important people in our lives. I can only hope that you knew the place you held in so many peoples' hearts, as we know how that place is empty without you. Jesse, Ben, and Shirley, you have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Know that we are all here to support you.

“ Mr. & Mrs. Adams and Jesse, I am so sorry for your loss. Jesse & I were close friends throughout middle & high school and it breaks my heart to learn of this tragedy. My brother, Andy, graduated from Centennial with Kenny. Although I did not know him well, Kenny was always very nice to me when I would spend time with Jesse. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
