“ Karen,

So sorry to learn of Ken's passing and send our love and sympathies to you and the whole family. Though we didn't see him often, when we did, he was always so warm and inviting. I know Pat really connected with him when they met at the family reunion. So we are saddened at his loss and pray that you and the family will surround each other with the many wonderful memories you created through the years that will keep him alive in your hearts.
