“ Ken's son Steve was one of my best friends growing up in Grandview. When I went to work at Grant Hospital in 1971, Ken welcomed me, and I played on the hospital softball team that he coached. He always had a smile and a booming laugh.

“ Jeff, we are so sorry about the loss of your dad. He was such a warm man with a fantastic sense of humor. We will miss hearing his great laugh during the holidays.

*Our deepest sympathies,
Jess and Jeff*
