“ I served as the Athens Korean Church Sunday School leader during my college years at Ohio University. I grew up in Powell, where during the winter months home from school Rev. Lee and his wife would drive me down to the Athens service after their morning service at the church in Dublin. I will never forget their generosity and kindness. Even though we had some language barrier (as I'm not proficient in the Korean language), Christ's love was shown to me through them. They offered me 'snacks' along the way, some new to me such as Korean pears and bulgogi. I have great memories of our travels and time with the church because of him. I wish Rev. Lee the same blessings as he provided to me.

Oh my gosh Scott. I remember you! I am DaHyun and was there from 2001-2008. Thanks for serving our children. I was wondering if you had found out and am glad to know you were aware of his passing.

“ I was Senior Minister of First Church, Athens when the Korean Congregation started blessing our building every week with their devoted worship and study. Keun Lee and I became brothers in Christ in the 1980's and have been ever since. We have lost a dear colleague but God has brought one of his servants home to be forever blessed.

“ One of the blessings of serving at Athens First UMC was the presence of the Athens Korean Church and Pastor Keun Sang Lee. I was frequently moved by the grace and deep faith of Pastor Keun Sang and the congregation. I am grateful for the memories of his friendship. He has run the race and kept the faith! - Tom Hanover
