“ I would like to Thank all the folks who signed the guest book and attended the funeral and visitation. The support from the Dublin area, the Kobacker House, Kevin's neighbors and friends his fellow workers (present and past),his investment group and especially his family Connie, Aaron, Nick and Jillian was truly uplifting and deeply heart felt. Thank you God for my brother Kevin Davis Denny.

“ Dear Connie and family, I share your loss and feel the sadness you are experiencing. My oldest son, John, who was 55, died January 1st of this year. I am so glad that I got to see Kevin at the first Denny reunion a few years ago. None of us know when it will be the last time of seeing our loved ones. Take care of each other and remember the good times. Love, Annabelle

“ Kevin, in all my years at the Mountain, and even in the years after I left, you were an amazing mentor. You taught me so much, had great faith in me, and kept me laughing even through the most stressful of times. You will never be forgotten!

“ Kevin was one of the first people I met when I joined the Board of the Dublin Arts Council. His sense of humor is something I will never forget. When he became ill, I was blessed to be among his friends to receive his inspirational and humorous e-mails. He made a major impact on my personal life which carried over to my professional work as a psychologist. He will be missed very much, but his humor and courage will never be forgotten. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you, his family and loved ones, in this time of such great loss. Sincerely, Fiona Travis

“Connie, I was thinking of you just the other day and then shocked and sadly surprised to find Kevin's obituary in the paper this morning. Very sorry for you (and Aaron, Nick and Jill,) that you've lost your husband, and their dad, Kevin. I remember him, he was always so nice. I know this has been a very rough time for you all, you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Teri Jordan (Dublin Latchkey, 1995-1997)

“Dear Mrs. Denny and family, I was fortunate to have met Kevin and got to know him through his many trips to Columbus Oncology. He was always pleasant and had a smile for all of us. He talked often of his family and you could see the joy in his expression and hear it in his voice the love that came from his heart, he was very proud. We will all miss him. I feel blest to have met him and to have been able to care for him during his illness. May your many wonderful memories carry you on and knowing he is at peace. Sincerely, Ann his chemo nurse
