“ Our prayers of peace and our condolences go out to the family. We are just finding out today about the loss of our dear friend Kevin. Last spoke to Kevin in May and lost touch but never lost any love for this man. Kevin is greatly missed not only for his mechanical skills but also for the love he always shared with us anytime we saw him. He was one of a kind. Best mechanic I ever had. Had the pleasure of meeting his fiancé, Michelle, once late last year although he talked about her every time we encountered each other. Michelle we pray that you are doing well and we will keep you lifted in prayer. God Bless

“ Kevin wasn't only my friend...he was my brother. As far back as i can remember there were only a few of us. The others know who they are. 26 years later there are still just a few of us. As I sit here mourning my brother and writing these words I long to be with the rest of you in your grief. We should be mourning and celebrating the life of one the best men I have ever known. I am weeping for my brother and all of you as well. Just know that there is no other place I want to be tonight. I love you all and I miss my brother. Michelle...words cannot say what I am feeling for you at this moment. I am so very sorry.

“ In a world full of people who are talkers, Kevin was a doer. He didn't talk about helping, he helped. He had gifts and he used them over and over again for friends and family. He was passionate and loyal and gave more than I think he was given to. He helped me when I dearly needed it and I wish I had been there when he needed someone. He will always live with me as a debt unpaid. He will always be missed.
