“ Jim and Joyce - Kevin and Tyler. I went home tonight after speaking to you at the funeral home and felt I did not say enough about how Kevin impacted my life. He was a true friend and I wish our relationship transcended our marital problems we both had. His loyalty to his family and friends was unreal. Now, I can recall many of the conversations about his convictions to what he believed in. I feel blessed to have known him and sad that I did not know him more and continue our friendship through difficult times....

“ I am so sorry for your loss, in sympathy I would like express that, God knows the pain we face when we lose a loved one in death especially from such a tragedy. In light of this, Revelation 21:4, 5 points to God's appointed time, when sickness, death, pain and sorrow will be forever done away with. Please find comfort in knowing of God's promises during this difficult time.

“ Jim and Joyce, Our thoughts and prayers have been with you and your family since we heard of Kevin's condition. Please know that Kevin is in God's hands where he now will have peace and serenity for eternity and one day you will be with him again. Anything that you may need, please let me know and we will see you on Wednesday. Rest, and trust in God.

“ In the brief time I worked with Kevin and knew him, I found him to be one of the most caring young fathers and gentle men it has been my privilege to know. I never drove past BMW with my own family without thinking of and mentioning Kevin to them with the comment that he was such a NICE guy. I am very sorry for your loss.
