“ I went to school with Kris and his brother Karl when Liberty Union was a jr. high and Olentangy was the high school. Kris was always very kind to everyone he met but I think my favorite memory was of him playing in the band for school dances. If I remember right they were called The Royal Guardsmen...if not I apologize for my memory. I'm so sorry for the family's loss but God gained an angel who is full of life in heaven.

“ I did not know Kris Nienkirchen, but my identical twin sister recently died. If Kurt Nienkirchen needs, there is a support group at www.twinlessstwins.org.

The surviving twins really "get it" about losing a twin.

My condolences.

“ I used to work with Kris and he would be walking down the isle and I'd be driving a fork lift,and one day he stopped as i went by and said " Uh....oh...a woman driver..." and i replied to him " it could be worse...it could be a a man driving"..He laughed and laughed...and we were instantly friends thereafter.and we talked some on facebook for years after I got laid off from Liebert. Kris was a very kind,sweet guy,and he will be missed by anyone that knew him.My thoughts and prayers for his family and friends. rest in Heaven dear Kris..

“ Kris was my brother-in-law in the '70's and he lived with us for a bit then too. He saved me from electrocuting myself when I was ten as he watched me attempt to stick a knife in a light socket. I know, not too smart, but there he sat at our kitchen table witnessing this about to happen and made the motion with his hands (because his mouth was full milk) as if to "noooo." Thank u for saving me and I pray you rest in peace. ~Laurie Swaro Lacher.
