“ On this side of heaven I'll never understand why we lost you too soon. On the other side I know that it may not matter because we are reborn into a new life. One without the pain and tears we have to endure here. I will so miss the days when I could hear your sweet voice and talk about the latest book you've read as we've done so many times. You are and always will be our precious Baby Krista.

Love always,
Unlce Frog

“ My beautiful, loving and sweet Krista. I miss you so much my darling. My heart is broken. You have left too soon. When you were born I couldn't believe you were so little with curly hair. My life was complete. You are always in my prayers. Some day we will meet again in the after life.
