“ Always a dear friend -- even before we were cast together by Ms Parsons in English Lit as Professor Higgins and Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady. It was an awkward moment when we realized that we were enjoying the part more than we expected. When the project was finished, she gave me a book and I gave her flowers.

Miss my sister every day. Her loss has been devastating for the entire family; the reality still seems unreal. Life is short and not we never know when it is pulled out from under us.

“Eve told me that Kris passed away, and we were both very sad to hear that. We know how it is to lose someone too young. It was always a pleasant surprise to run into you guys at the grocery store. Eve was telling me how she used to groom your horses and I think Kris was one of her favorite people at the barn.

We are very sorry for your loss and are thinking about you.

“ Please accept our deepest sympathy and heartfelt thoughts. May time accomplish what no words can do. Ed and I loved Kris; her gentle soul, loving heart, grace and compassion will always be remembered. I also have wonderful memories of the many mornings we shared coffee, dressing up for Halloween, having a terrific roommate on one of the tennis trips and enjoying our time on the courts.
