“ I went to the cemetary yesterday for your birthday.I miss you Kristy so much.I would give anything just to hear your voice and to see your beautiful face just 1 more time.This is so much harder than I thought it would be.When I went to the cemetary yesterday to see you I really didn't know what to say except that I love you and I miss you but sitting here today I can think of a million things to say.I can think of a million memories I have with you.You were always my favorite out of all the kids and This hurts so bad .This was not supposed to end like this.You weren't supposed to die damnit.You are still supposed to be here mad at me and I would even take that right now instead of you not being here.No1 will ever take your place in my heart and my memories.I love you now and forever.Always have and I always will.It feels like I have lost my own child.You were my child even if not biologically.I will forever have a part of my heart lost bcuz it is in heaven with you.I will always regret the way things ended with us but I want you to know that I never stopped loving you and I never will.I will talk to you tonight just like I do every night so until then I love you.

“ Here it is almost your birthday and I am sitting here crying like a bitch bcuz I miss you so much.I find myself asking Why Why you? Today is the 31st day of May 2016 and tbh it hasn't gotten any easier.I have a lot of regrets about how things ended between you and me but the 1 thing I could never regret nor forget is how much I loved you and love you still.I have a lot of good memories between us but damn it I wanted more.I still want more but I know that can't be.Your daughter Alexes is graduating this week and she reminds me so much of you when you were younger.She is as beautiful as you were and are.I love you Kristy Marie and not a day goes by that I don't think of you.You will always be my special favorite niece and nothing nor no1 will ever change that.I just wish we could've been blessed with your presence at least a little longer.But I know someday we will all be reunited and oh what a beautiful day that will be.I love you babygirl.Always have always will forever....Aunt Theresa

“ I must've really loved you because no one else has ever puked in my face and gotten away with it especially when we were wrestling over a piece of chocolate pie. Who the hell am I kidding I still love you and I miss you so much. We really hadn't talked in a little over a year but that didn't mean that I stopped loving you. I remember so many things about you. I remember you and Jessi putting shaving cream all over my car 1 night. I remember when we were out on Headleys Mill Preston scared you so bad because it was soooooo deserted and dark that you peed your pants. I could go on and on and on. I have so many funny beautiful memories of you. I think the funniest tho is when we were going to West Virginia for granpas funeral and we were talking about how old De was looking and you said no he doesn't , Jessi looked at you and said yes he does look at his crows feet and you looked at Jessi and said well damnit I wasn't looking at his feet. When we told you what crows feet was you looked all embarrassed and just turned around and walked off only to come back in a few minutes saying oh I get it now.
