“ Sumi and I would always have a good laugh at work. She was a good friend to have. She cared about me and my family. We always talked about Dale and we enjoyed each others company. Sumi will be missed. I loved and cared about her..

“ Kusum was one of my first associates that I worked with when I joined the PM team at DC 5. I enjoyed my time that I got to work with her on PM and AM shift. Her generosity, love for others, and big heart will be missed. We often would talk about her passions in life and her love for her husband. She will be missed by the DC 5 team. Rest in peace Kusum!

“ Kusum was my first cousin from the maternal side. We were in touch through phone calls on regular basis. Attempts to meet her during our visit to San Francisco was not possible last April . Our prayers to ALL family members may God give them strength. RIP my sweet sister Ramendra and Nilima Sahai Auckland New Zealand. Amen
