“ I knew Ann and Keith from Brookside Golf and Country Club. We played in couples' tournaments on Sundays and Ladies League on Tuesdays. Ann had the greatest smile, dimples and all. Her voice was soft and sweet, made you want to listen to her stories. She loved to laugh, if you could make her laugh you could be in her wide circle of friends. She was a good bridge player, she taught me to pay attention to every bid, contract and card played. We were widowed about the same time period. She took to travel as a second nature. I told her that upon my grand children's graduations I would offer to take them on a trip. My first born grandson wanted to go to Chicago, her Kevin wanted to go to Italy...then Nicole wanted to go to Greece! I said your grandchildren are so worldly Ann and she loved it. I extend my deepest sympathies to Brian and John and their families. She will be sorely missed and fondly remembered.

“ I was Ann’s neighbor at Cape Marco in Marco Island. We instantly loved being neighbors with her. Sharing a glass of wine and talking and laughing. She was a joy to be with. I think of Ann all the time. Rest in peace. Patty Saxon
