“ I had a new 45 record & road my bike to Laura's house so we could listen. "Hot time summer in the city...". So many fond memories. I moved after 6th grade but will always remember my friends from St. Catherine.

To the Cole Family,

I saw this and was sorry I was unable to attend the funeral. I have great memories of all the Cole kids that I knew, went to school with, and coached. Still today when I pass the old Cole house from time to time I think of you all and wonder what everyone is doing. [I loved playing tennis in high school...wish I had known Laura played tennis as I was always looking to hit with someone.]

I coached Jeff at St. Catharine's in my first coaching job.

I want to offer my prayers and sincerest condolences for your loss. Losing a classmate always takes a piece of you, but I am sure that Our Lord is taking extremely good care of her.

May God Bless your entire Cole Family.
