

Laura "Jeanne" Dunlap

April 8, 2015

A Celebration of the Life and Faith of Laura "Jeanne" Dunlap will be held at Dublin Baptist Church, 7195 Coffman Road, Dublin, OH 43017 on Monday, April 13, 2015 starting with visitation from 5:30-7:00p.m. and concluding with her Funeral Service at 7:00p.m. Pastor Darrel Gabbard will be officiating. We welcome all whose lives she touched to join in honoring her. A private family burial service will be held the following day at St. Clairsville Union Cemetery. Jeanne was born in Wheeling, WV and throughout her life lived in Bridgeport, Ohio, Miami, Florida, San Antonio, Texas and Columbus, Ohio. She worked mostly as a mom, a barber and as an amateur comedian-but she most enjoyed her role as a church greeter. As a mother, co-worker and friend, Jeanne's life was defined by faith, love and fun. In that spirit, she requested colorful attire be worn to her funeral. Jeanne is survived by her daughters: Christy (Ron) Bruno Spencer; Robin Bruno Viers; Lori (Paul Olson) Bruno; and Lynn Bruno. Also surviving are her adoring grandchildren: Elaine Unzicker, Angela Spencer, Benny Spencer, Conner Viers, Grant Spencer, Jack Spencer, Noah Smith, Isaac Olson and Hallie Smith. She was preceded in death by her first husband Jack W. Givens, her parents Clifford and Irma Dunlap and her brother James A. Dunlap. Jeanne had requested that memorials in her name be given to Dublin Baptist Church. Arrangements have been entrusted to Rutherford Funeral Home at Powell, 450 W. Olentangy St., Powell, OH 43065 (614)-792-1471. Please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com to send condolences to the family.

“ Christy, I am so deeply saddened to hear the news of your mom's passing. She was a wonderful friend to my mom and a joy to be near. I know my mom loved her very much. When I think of Jeanne, I remember funny faces and laughter. A beautiful woman with a beautiful smile who could capture a room with one tiny joke. I'm certain she has touched many hearts in her travels and will be missed by many. I will always remember her and celebrate the joy she brought to my life. Love and miss you too! Heather

“ Jeanne was one of Gods glittering Angels. She loved her family and friends. Man!!!! Did she have a lot of friends. She touched everyone she met and her bling and glitter brought a smile to everyone's face. It was my extreme pleasure in taking care of her during her final days and am blessed to have known her. Rest in peace my friend. You will surely be missed. Love always.

Anyone and everyone touched by Jeanne knows she's now wearing outlandish clothes in colors gleefully chosen to raise eyebrows and spread joy. This woman shared a raw and painful childhood with her brother, Jim, and loved him fiercely. Now she's finally reunited with him, and they're sharing the very corniest of jokes and the very best of vintage rock n' roll.

We've all heard the saying that some of the most powerful sermons are not those we speak, they're those we live. The hardscrabble mining town of Sistersville, West Virginia, dealt her some of the toughest blows life could hand out. Yet she never stopped smiling, loving, and never faltered in showing her deep love of Jesus Christ.

Enjoy your new body, our beloved friend. Oh! And ask Jimmy to tell you about the tragic closing of the Sistersville library. Someone checked out the book.
