

Laura Trommer

February 1, 1958 - November 13, 2024

Laura, aged 66, passed away on November 13th, 2024. Known for her sharp intellect, unwavering political principles, and love of dogs, Laura found purpose and joy in the natural world, the love of pets and friends, and the pursuit of knowledge, as she was a voracious reader.

Born on February 1st, 1958, in Akron, Ohio, Laura moved to Columbus in 1977 to attend college at The Ohio State University, where she lived in the stadium scholarship dormitory and made life-long friends. Laura also attended Columbus State Community College.

Laura's place to seek happiness and peace was at the Columbus Zoo. She knew many of the wonderful residents by name. She also loved festivals and creative art.

Preceded in death by her late parents, Howard and Frances Trommer, Laura is survived by her Aunt Nancy (Terry), siblings Thomas (Veronica), Rebecca Manning (Kevin) and John, as well as nephews Adam, Alaric, Gabe, niece Kate and many cousins.

A private memorial service will be held to honor Laura's life and legacy. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Franklin County Dog Shelter and Adoption Center <https://dogs.franklincountyohio.gov/Donate/Dona> te-Funds], reflecting Laura's dedication to making the world a better place.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Having fun at stadium reunion with Unit T and Unit W

Jane Bauer - November 25, 2024 at 07:43 PM

JB

“ Laura loved talking about music with Johnny from Unit V

Jane Bauer - November 25, 2024 at 07:40 PM

JB

“ Unit T of the Stadium dorm goofing around. Danny Gucker from Unit A joining us at a reunion.

Jane Bauer - November 25, 2024 at 07:20 PM

JB

“ Laura with her beloved dog Bear.

Jane Bauer - November 25, 2024 at 07:17 PM

JB

“ Laura feeding the giraffes and sitting with Jack at the Columbus Zoo.

Jane Bauer - November 25, 2024 at 07:15 PM