“ So sorry for your loss Bill and family. Cousin Leah was a beautiful soul. I will cherish her talks and bright smile she always gave me. Beautiful lady with grace and dignity where ever she was. When she got excited I remember her fire, she was a love. May her memory be eternal. Chrysanne Triantafillou Zghoul

“ Aunt Leah was a pillar of good cheer, grace & kindness from the earliest memories of my life as her nephew.

No matter the challenge, Leah always had the gift of expressing a positive smile and an incredible goodwill.

Leah had only love, grace and devotion for her beloved children, Harriet & William, for her devoted husband, Uncle Tony, who cherished his Leah, and for each of her five loving grandchildren.

Leah held strong and well founded convictions, but she always led and conveyed kindness, good cheer and devotion to all her family & friends.

My Mom, Irene, so loved and adored her cousin, Leah, as a sister.

May Leah's Memory be Eternal and her great love, kindness and goodwill remain everlasting with all whom she beautifully touched, and live long through her five loving grandchildren.
