“ When I look back on my elementary school days, all of my memories revolve around her. I am so blessed to have had her as a part of my life. From the days/nights at Grandma Trouts house, to the apartment, to the house on Hartford and the house on Lori Ln. Reading teen magazines and having g a crush on Brian Bloom, to trying to sneak a peak at Grandma Trouts cute neighbor:) It was with Leslie that I first watched the movie Shag (my favorite) and because of you Terri that I love Elvis and the movie Elvis and Me. I remember how cool I felt when we went to the continent one night and you let me wear one of the jeans jackets that were hand painted. We were a trio.

Most of all I remember her laugh and smile. The way her whole face lit up.. she always had the ability to laugh at herself. My heart hurts that we lost touch, that somewhere when we became older we drifted apart.

I am so sad that she had to carry such a heavy burden with her illness, but am not surprised to hear she smiled most of the way through. You are in our prayers as you navigate the road ahead. My childhood truly wouldn't have been the same without her or your family❤️

“ This world was so much better for having had Leslie in it. She brought great joy to my life. I always loved seeing her. She was a brilliant, hilarious, tender hearted young woman that never failed to make me laugh. Leslie reminds me of the quote by Maya Angelou “At the end of the day people won't remember what you said or did, they will remember how you made them feel.” Leslie made me feel joy, determination, gratitude, amazement, happiness, compassion, hope.

And her family showed me what it truly means to care. Terry, you inspired me more than you will ever know. Your boundless love for your beautiful daughter brings tears to my eyes. I know that sometimes Leslie's fear made her ask for more than was possible to give and you gave beyond the ability of the most dedicated of mothers. In our humanness we all think we could do "something" different or better, but I've witnessed so many families in my life and your care and dedication surpasses the best I've seen. You demonstrated healthy caregiving. I am grateful she is finally free from her pain and suffering and is alive and well in all of us who had the privilege of knowing her (and her family).

With Love and sincerest gratitude,

My condolences to all who loved Leslie. Strong does not do justice to the steely grit she had. The pain she endured and triumphed over. She was a comeback kid. Her sheer will to live and the smile she had while doing battle was remarkable. Prayers to all who will miss her.
