“ Fay, I am saddened to learn of the passing of your Mom. She was a special, one of a kind woman who was very proud of her daughters. I am thinking and praying for you and Marilyn. My heart and thoughts are most definitely with you at such a difficult time. I know that your Dad and Mom are having a happy reunion and will be watching over you from the great heaven above. You are most loved and know that you have many friends (and animals) who care for you. Terri Williams

“ Dear Fay: I was so sorry to read about your mom. I met her a couple of times and thought she was really neat. You did a very nice job with her obit....she clearly had a great impact on you and your life's work! I hope you and your family are doing well. I think of you often. Best Wishes Always, Jerri Furniss
