“ After checking the weather forecast I decided not to drive to Powell tonight. I know Lill would understand. We met Lill after she came back to Columbus from the Big Apple.

What an interesting person, she was a joy to be around. Sue and I had some great times with her and Frank. She was one of a kind with a wicked sense of humor.

I am certain that all the loving memories you have of Lill will sustain and comfort you during this time of real sadness.

“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of Mrs. Lillian Singer Will. I had the good fortune of working for Mrs. Will for five years at Mount Carmel West in the 1970s. It was early in my work career and her leadership and mentoring has had a lasting effect on me to this day. Her influence on me went much further than the technical aspects of my work, enabling me to develop a much broader vision of why we were there. Mrs. Will worked tirelessly to advance the practice of nursing to the highest levels of professionalism and she was always the strongest advocate of the patient. I and many others owe her a tremendous debt of gratitude.

I regret that I will be unable to attend services; my wife recently had foot surgery and is not yet able to get around and I need to stay close to care for her. I send my sincere condolences to the family, her friends and the many professionals who worked with Mrs. Will.
