

Linda Boyer

May 18, 2009

BOYER Linda Jean Boyer, age 61, passed away peacefully at Kobacker Hospice on Monday, May 18, 2009 following a prolonged illness. Born November 16, 1947, in Lakewood, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Neil Robert and Jean Langell Olson and beloved granddaughter of the late Lillian Jeavons Langell. She graduated from Lakewood High School with the class of '65 and moved to the Columbus area in 1973. She enjoyed a long career as a floral designer and was awarded both for her original floral designs and the many beautiful architectural changes she made to her Worthington home. She is survived by brothers, Karl R. Wilber (Julia) of Santa Rosa, California, Gregory A. Wilber (Karen) of Nashville, Tennessee, W. Scott Wilber (Mary Moore) of Arlington, Virginia, Daryl B. Wilber (Jodi) of Dublin, Ohio; a sister, Christine E. Kramer (John) of Gates Mills, Ohio; her step-father, Wendell W. Wilber of Canton, Ohio; 9 nieces and nephews and many dear friends. Memorial Service will be held at 3:00 PM on Saturday, May 23, 2009 at Rutherford-Corbin, 515 High Street, Worthington, Ohio 43085 where friends may call 2:00 PM until service time. Interment Lakewood Park Cemetery in Lakewood, Ohio. Friends who wish may contribute to Kobacker House Homereach Hospice, 3595 Olentangy River Road, Columbus, Ohio (614) 566-5377, the American Cancer Society, 870 Michigan Avenue, Columbus, Ohio (614) 228-4456 or to the 30th Pan Massachusetts Challenge at <http://www.widopenwest.com/~bserney>. www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com. (885-4006).

Tribute Wall

“ Linda Boyer

---

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ What I remember most about Linda was her laugh. It was big, full, hardy and infectious. I would order my flowers and then we would digress into what was blooming in our gardens or what our next garden or house project would be. She was so much more to me than jsut my sales person at Cleveland Plant and Flower and I miss her dearly.

---

Polly Creech - May 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM