“ Dear Family,
Always the wide smile which included her eyes, always the bright outlook and bright lipstick. You have chosen a great photo to include with her obituary. The last visit to Central her hug was warm and she thanked me because I always sent cards even though they moved away. And, also in the photo, Dick's always strong arm of love and support. His smile and willingness to serve matched hers. What an excellent couple! Well loved, well loved. Prayers for you all, dear ones.
