

Lisa Angeli Clark

July 21, 1957 - December 19, 2025

Lisa Angeli Clark, born on July 21, 1957, peacefully passed away on December 19, 2025. She lived a life filled with love, laughter and cherished moments.

Lisa was preceded in death by her parents, Betty Jane and Donald McCartney, and her sister, Pamela Hawkins. She is survived by her devoted husband of 40 years, Dave; her daughters, Jamie (Joe) Almaguer and Kellie Brown; her beloved grandchildren, Ainsley, Kaiden and Colton; her brother, Mark McCartney; her stepmother, Beulah McCartney; her half-sisters, Nicole (Matthew) Curtain and Andrea McIntosh; and many nieces and nephews.

Lisa found joy in life's simple pleasures. She loved dining at her and Dave's favorite Grandview restaurants and treasured their Sunday drives, taking in the beauty of the world around them.

Her greatest joy was being "Mimi" to her grandchildren. They were the center of her universe. Their laughter, milestones, and everyday stories brought her endless pride. Time with them was magical and was filled with baking, sleepovers, games and adventures that created memories they will hold forever.

At home, Lisa created a world of warmth and fun. Her daughters' most treasured memories include spontaneous living room dance parties with the music turned up, furniture pushed aside and laughter echoing through the house. Those moments captured her perfectly: playful, loving and always ready to celebrate life.

Lisa leaves behind a family who will forever carry her spirit. Though she is no longer physically with us, her love, warmth and joyful energy will continue to guide and comfort all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Alzheimer's Association or the Franklin County Animal Shelter in Lisa's memory.
