“ Lisa and I were thick as thieves when we were kids. Her parents were very kind and welcoming. Lisa was exactly the same. Many fond memories made hanging out at her house or at The Park of Roses, messing around in the gym, on the sports fields and playgrounds and the ponds. Always a pleasure to catch up at our class reunions. God received a sweet angel. Rest in peace Lisa.

“ Knew Lisa since 1971. One of my best high school friends Zach Antrim was her neighbor. Zach tried to help her caring for her for a year. He felt terrible about Lisa passing a young age. Lots of memories with Lisa. I helped her find her house at Indian Lake. She was always a sweet caring person. RIP Lisa , gone way too soon.
