“ Erin, Jeff and Eric,
I am so sorry to hear of Lisa's passing. I am glad I was able to see her a few times at Morehouse as she did her chemo. Although so sick she was just as beautiful as ever. John said your Mom is in the hospital. I hope you are all hanging in there ok. Take care of yourselves.

“ I met Lisa when we were at Stephens College. She was a beautiful, funny, and talented young woman. We both lived in Whales dorm and were dance majors. Years later I ran into her again in Powell, Ohio. She was pregnant with her first child. She was wearing a very cute yellow and black maternity outfit. My husband told her she looked like a bumble bee. She laughed so hard. What a vibrant and loving person she was. Thank you for the sweet memories, Lisa. You will be missed.

“ "People come into your life for a reason, a season or a lifetime. When you figure out which one it is, you will know what to do for each person..." Lisa came into my life for a season and for that I am grateful. I met Lisa in 2000....she lived one street over from each other. She made me laugh and brought me a lot of joy to my life at that time We had many great conversations on her deck with a bottle of wine. One of my favorite memories was taking a trip to Sedona with her in 2003. Although I only ran into her occasionally in the last several years, I will always have fond memories of the special times we shared. RIP dear Lisa. xoxo

“ Back in high school I remember someone saying "how does she always look so good". Well I sat beside Lisa in class and everyday, 5 minutes before the bell would ring, she would reach down and get her purse and out came the makeup and she would reapply. Every class she did that I was told. That's how she did it. To the family I send my deepest sympathies. You are in my thoughts and prayers
