“ We were newly weds with no job, no place to live, and school was starting for my husband in a few weeks. Mr.Arthur looked beyond our desperation and took a chance on us.. We managed their off campus apartments from 1982-1986. They were two of the kindest people we've ever met. They were more than just employers. Mr.Arthur was largely responsible for getting me to enroll at OSU and pursue my teaching dream. They became more like an aunt and uncle to us. From attending my graduation to selling us our first home to celebrating the birth of our first home, they were there for us. Unfortunately my husband passed away 4 years ago, but I'm hoping he's already catching up with Ralph and Lois.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I work at Trillium Crossing and remember Lois so fondly from her time living in our community ...funny, no nonsense, spunky...my kind of woman. Thankfully I still saw her often after she moved on visits to our beauty salon. I am richer for having known her.
